Poetic Chaos, the dynamic musical duo driven by an irresistible blend of introspection and nature's energy, is thrilled to announce the release of their debut album, "beautiful 'till it hurts." The captivating album offers listeners a delicate awakening, intertwining the contrasting emotions of the mind and the raw power of nature.

Sparked by the desire to reconnect with simpler times and the call from within, Poetic Chaos masterfully crafts a sonic tapestry that harmonises darkness and balance. The album invites listeners to explore the depths of their inner selves and embrace the harmonious duality that defines human existence.

The multi-national duo Poetic Chaos has recently toured down the East Coast of Australia after having supported Stella Donnelly at The Tanks Arts Centre in Gimuy/Cairns. The duo has relocated to Meanjin/Brisbane and are working on new projects for 2024.

Poetic Chaos Bio:

Coming from completely different backgrounds, Poetic Chaos was created from a place of openness and creativity; in the search for understanding the conflicting feelings that come with being in your 20's and not knowing what's next.

Jade Schuck was born in Australia and crossed paths with Argentinian born Clara Satzke in 2017. In 2019 they began their musical journey writing and producing music together. It wasn't until 2021/2022 that the duo formed Poetic Chaos.

Every bit of themselves is portrayed in their poetry. Every ounce of chaos, every bottled-up feeling. Poetic Chaos doesn't hold back when delving into the opposing worlds of their minds and reality. With soft acoustic melodies and hypnotising harmonies, the duo challenges the untouched thoughts and emotions - to let go and return to themselves through music.
